

UNIVERSITY SEMESTER ABROAD

California State University, Fullerton

The University Semester Abroad (USA) program provides a unique academic and cultural experience for you to study in the United States. Through USA, you can take classes on the Cal State Fullerton campus, where you learn from experienced professors, study with American students and enjoy other program and campus benefits.

- Take university courses and earn credits that may transfer to your home university
- Visit Southern California attractions such as Disneyland, Hollywood, beaches and more
- Join student clubs/organizations on campus and participate in all the student events and activities

Undergraduate Students (Bachelor Level) can come to study at CSUF for a single semester, an academic year, or for 10 weeks during the summer. Academically qualified graduate students (Master Level) can take courses for one or two semesters in the areas of engineering, computer science, humanities, social science and art.
