- (3) IEC Undergraduate Service Fee includes the following services:
 - a. Introduction of universities' application systems.
 - b. Introduction of the higher education system in the United Kingdom.
 - c. Information on all entry requirements to your preferred universities including all academic as well as language requirements.
 - d. Full list of your application documents for your preferred universities.
 - e. If necessary, information on IELTS preparation and testing centers in Hungary.
 - f. Tracking of your application.
 - g. If necessary, step-by-step advising service.
 - h. Information on how to accept your offers.
 - i. Information on the UK student loan system for EU students.
- (4) IEC will register the application with 'UCAS' - University and Colleges Application System and complete the Applicant's registration.
- (5) These services are executed at the IEC office in Budapest, Hungary.
- (6) IEC does not guarantee the success of the application. IEC cannot be made liable by the outcome of the Applicant's application with the given universities under any circumstances.

§ 3 Applicant's Personal Data

- (1) This registration includes the Applicant's personal data as described in the registration above.
- (2) The Applicant hereby agrees for IEC to use his or her personal data for the undergraduate application for application purposes
- (3) The use of the Applicant's personal data is handled under GDPR ruling at it is regulated on IEC's website under this link: <https://www.ieconline.hu/info/adatvedelem.html>

§ 4 Applicant's Responsibilities

- (1) It is the applicant's responsibility to provide IEC with any documents or information that are needed for the application by the 31st of December before the 15th of January deadline, such as:
 - a. IEC application form completed with all the information asked, dated and signed by the applicant or the applicant's legal representative if under 18 years of age.
 - b. UCAS application form completed with all the information asked, dated and signed by the applicant or student's legal representative if under 18 years of age.
